REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Saluda River Academy for the Arts (SRAA), a Nationally Distinguished Title I School and Kennedy Center School of Distinction in Arts Education recipient, serves 375 students and has been an integral part of the West Columbia community since 1954. The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) have accredited SRAA for the last thirty-nine years. To date, we have received over $155,000 in grants from various sources.

This past year, we utilized a variety of strategies to enhance student achievement by means of differentiating instruction. We implemented a parallel block schedule in order to create more opportunities for small group instruction across the school. We expanded our Habits of Mind initiative—an instructional approach designed to promote thinking and academic excellence within children, regardless of diverse needs. Task rotations began in several classrooms, as a method of meeting our children’s instructional needs. We continued the use of small group instruction, such as in our READ 120 classroom. HeadSprout and Compass Learning provided computerized ways to differentiate instruction for all students.

SRAA was fortunate to have a full-time Instructional Facilitator to assist our faculty with on-going, job-embedded professional development in instructional strategies, as well as analyzing and utilizing data to better equip the faculty to make data-driven decisions.

Our students were presented with unique opportunities to showcase the school within and outside our neighborhood. For example, our students performed at Clemson University with Grammy Award Winner, Natalie Macmaster. Our unique Arts program is integrated into the curriculum and is a catalyst for improving our students’ achievement, confidence, and communication. Additionally, our programs expose students to the various facets of the Arts while teaching discipline, expression, cooperation, and character. Four artists-in-residents provided instruction for our students in the areas of mime, dance, rhythm composition, and cartooning. We offered after school arts classes and extra-curricular opportunities.

Our achievements and accolades are a reflection of the strong support from our SIC, PTO, business partners, and community. Saluda River Academy for the Arts proudly remains committed to our mission of “Advancing Every Student.” As a team, we endeavor to touch the minds and hearts of all learners by living the mission.
